

Graduate Student Travel Application Academic Year 2012-2013

The Center for the Study of the American South offers support to UNC-CH graduate students to travel to scholarly conferences. Graduate students at UNC-CH who are presenting papers or comparable productions about the American South at scholarly conferences may apply for as much as $500 in annual travel support from the Center.

To apply: please submit the following to csas@unc.edu.

- 1) this application form
- 2) a copy of the conference program listing your participation
- 3) an abstract of the paper
- 4) a brief letter from your academic advisor certifying that you are currently enrolled and in good standing

Items 1-3 should be submitted together as a single PDF file; the advisor's letter may be emailed separately.

Applications are reviewed three times a year: October 1; February 1; and May 1. All applications which are not funded at any given review are rolled forward and considered again at the next review, continuing throughout the academic year.

Application date:

PID:

Name:

Email address:

Home address:

Conference:

Title of presentation:

Conference dates:

Conference location:

BUDGET

Conference registration:

Travel:

Lodging:

Other (please specify):

Please list other sources of conference support to which you have applied, including the UNC Graduate School and your home department. For each, please indicate if you received funding (and the amount) or if the application is still pending.

Support:

Please list all previous financial support from the Center for the Study of the American South.

Prior CSAS
funding: